ABSTRACT

This guide describes where specific skills are emphasized in the three reading texts (published by Economy, Ginn, and Holt) used in the primary grades in the Stoneham (Massachusetts) Public School System. The four major sections of the book are color-coded and include phonetic and structural analysis, vocabulary development, study skills, and comprehension and thinking skills. Literary plots, settings, and grammar lessons have not been included in this book. The specific skills listed include knowing 21 consonants, 7 consonant combinations, 23 consonant blends, the 5 vowels, vowel homonyms, and acronyms; understanding oral directions and idea illustrating; sequencing events and ideas; problem solving; categorizing; answering questions; understanding the main idea; recognizing imagery and analogies; alphabetizing; interpreting cartoons, maps, charts and graphs; and using the dictionary and thesaurus. RESOURCE BOOK FOR PRIMARY GRADES

This book is a guide to help determine where specific skills are taught in the three reading texts used in the primary grades.

Only major skills are listed. Vocabulary development is not included with each story for it is naturally taught with each story. Literary plots, settings, etc. have not been included in this book. Grammar lessons were also omitted. Only skills which are listed on the profile sheet have been cross referenced.

Please feel free to make corrections, or notations of any type. This book is for your use.

Pages listed refer to teacher's editions of books and often only the beginning page of each story.

No part of this book may be reproduced without permission of the Stoneham Public School Department
